

Privacy Policy

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Personal Information to Identify or clients and customers – In providing services to you, we obtain certain “personal information for identification purposes;” that is, information that identifies you individually.

information may include: your name, address, telephone numbers and email. Other information may include your computer’s description, passwords and purchase receipt for the device.

It is our policy to collect only the personal information needed to provide the services we offer with the quality you desire and deserve. It is also our policy to retain that information only as long as needed for our business purposes or as required by law.

We take reasonable precautions to identify you and your authorized representative when we receive an inquiry regarding your device or computer. We also take reasonable steps to protect any information found on your device from unauthorized access.

Please note that we may also use your contact information to provide you with updates on your repairs. This includes recommendations of products and services that can help with the proper maintenance of your device.

First Choice PC Fix

